

0:29:49 Tony Pearson: Our staff have had work to do for say 1-2 weeks. Will the C Job Retention Scheme be available for the remaining period that they cant work or does it have to be the whole period? How is the scheme to work in practice? Do we have a form etc. to fill in etc.? Thanks T

00:30:35 Jeremy Taylor:Hi Tony - I got a doc from Sherrards Law on Furlough Scheme. Will post in a minute

00:30:47 Jeremy Taylor:if that's ok?

00:30:50 Barney Durrant: do you think the self employed will actually get some help from the government

00:31:03 Barney Durrant: happy to hear the public answer

00:32:52 Barney Durrant: universal credit aint gonna pay my mortgage

00:34:19 James Colvin: DMH Stallard has produced various blogs/articles on the various schemes announced by the Government including the job retention scheme - see www.dmhstallard.com/news-insights

00:35:14 Steve Jebson: Thanks Gary

00:35:31 Jeremy Taylor:For info: I applied to my mortgage for holiday of 3 months. Simple online process & waiting to hear. I'll aim to put that money by & pay it off at the end as they warn there could be an increase in my monthly payment after the three months.

00:35:40 Jeremy Taylor:Thanks Gary

00:38:16 Barney Durrant: will the council offer a payment holiday on council tax? or at least out the two months free up front now instead of at the end of the financial year

00:38:45 Jeremy Taylor:Agree with Barney

00:39:03 Barney Durrant: i have heard some councils are offering this - what about MSDC?

00:47:13 Nasser Carrembacchus: If you are with Nationwide, it is all online and immediate <https://portal.nationet.com/Forms/Bespoke/Mortgages/PaymentHoliday>

00:47:17 Jeremy Taylor:Hi. Question: As a home based ltd co, I don't pay rates. 2 directors paid min wage & take directors dividend as & when we can. At the moment I feel we are falling through the gaps. If I furlough us (the 2 staff - directors) then we can't work on marketing the business.

00:47:54 Barney Durrant: Halifax are launching it online asap for payment holidays up to 3 months

00:48:45 Barney Durrant: almost everything talked about today isn't available to me as a self employed person without a shop or assets apart from my MacBook :)

00:49:41 Jeremy Taylor:This from Barclays - <https://www.barclays.co.uk/coronavirus/mortgages/>

00:49:55 Damon Thomas: Do we know when further information about the job retention scheme will be made available. I have 6 staff we are reviewing what to do with

00:50:08 Barney Durrant: no on answered my council tax question

00:50:47 Oliver Lashley:Hi Barney, I believe Kevin is taking questions after Gary

00:51:42 Barney Durrant: ok thanks Oliver

00:52:29 James Colvin: looking at my colleagues article on our website, it looks like the job retention scheme will be up and running by the end of April, back dated to 1 March
